CMC Orders Investigation into BCC

The Crime and Misconduct Commission yesterday ordered an independent investigation into the management of the Council meeting and minutes held on 14 February 2012.

Councillor Nicole Johnston said that the CMC investigation was critical following the extraordinary actions of the Chairman of Council, Krista Adams, and City Solicitor, David Askern.

"The handling of the Council meeting on Tuesday 14 February and the subsequent alteration of the Council transcript is a serious matter, and I welcome the CMC's decision," Councillor Johnston said.

"Councillor Adams' decision to force me to leave the Council meeting was a questionable one and the official record of what had occurred has been erased. As I stated on Tuesday night, Councillor Adams unlawfully directed my removal from Council for simply mentioning that the Tennyson Parkland deal be referred to the Queensland Auditor General for investigation."

Media Alert: Councillor Johnston will be available for media comments at 12.30pm on the deck overlooking King George Square.
