Media Release

3 October 2012

Annerley goes to the movies

The fun family movie The Adventures of Tin Tin will come alive on the big screen on Saturday 13, October on the Junction Park State School Oval Waldheim Ave, Annerley, commencing at 6:30pm.

Councillor for Tennyson, Nicole Johnston, encouraged families in the district to bring a rug or a chair and enjoy a free family movie under the stars.

“It has been a tough year for local families and a free, starlight movie is a great way to unwind and catch up with friends and neighbours. The Adventures of Tin Tin is one of those classic children’s cartoons that has been reinvented for a new generation of families. It’s a movie that offers great fun for parents and children alike,” Councillor Johnston said.

The Universal Pictures movie, rated PG, is about an animated adventure movie about intrepid reporter Tin Tin and Captain Haddock who set off on a treasure hunt for a sunken ship.

Junction Park State School’s P&C will hold a sausage sizzle, with drinks and snacks to be available to purchase from 5:30pm

In case of rain, the movies will be screened in the school hall.
